2024- 2025 MARSHALL APPLICATION PROCESS

To access the Project Proposal form, please complete an Intent to Participate form through Survey Monkey to be considered for a Florida State University nomination. Candidates must submit the names and email addresses of four recommenders along with their most recent drafts of the application essays no later than 3 PM Wednesday, June 26, 2024.

FSU Marshall candidates must be endorsed by the university. Candidates must submit all application materials no later than 3 PM on Wednesday, August 14, 2024. The campus deadline is a hard deadline. Incomplete applications will not be considered for university endorsement after this date. A completed application includes a complete online Marshall Application, four electronic Letters of Recommendation, and Official Transcripts (from all colleges attended).

Candidates are strongly encouraged to review the Rules for Candidates. All internal application materials should conform to application guidelines determined by the general Marshall Scholarships Application.

Incomplete applications will not be considered by the Florida State University Marshall Faculty Committee. Any questions or concerns about the on-line application procedures should be directed to the Office of National Fellowships. Your materials will be reviewed by a faculty committee comprised of former Marshall Scholars. Interviews will be scheduled for late August for applicants who are considered strong candidates.

INTERESTED IN APPLYING?

Marshall applicants must be endorsed by an institution at which they have completed two years of full-time undergraduate or postgraduate study.

The Office of National Fellowships (ONF) works with all of Florida State University's Marshall applicants. Assistance is offered in the form of individual student meetings to discuss candidacy and project ideas, essay construction and revision assistance, and technical support.
