2024- 2025 RHODES APPLICATION PROCESS

To be considered for a Florida State University nomination, candidates must submit the names and email addresses of five to eight recommenders along with the name of the intended College at Oxford and your intended program of study no later than Wednesday, June 26 2023 via Survey Monkey.

Rhodes candidates must be endorsed by their college or university. No exceptions can be made. In order to be considered for an endorsement, candidates must submit all application materials, no later than 3 PM on Wednesday, August 14, 2023.

A completed application includes:

- Completed and printed on-line Application Form
- Official College transcripts (from all colleges attended)
- A short list (maximum length: two pages) of principal activities, honors, prizes, scholarships, offices held, athletic record and extracurricular interests, including dates
- Personal statement, not to exceed 750 words, including certification statement and 350 word Academic Statement
- Five to eight letters of reference

All internal application materials should conform to application guidelines determined by the general Rhodes Application. Hard copies of all application materials should be submitted to the Office of National Fellowships, 3rd floor of the Honors, Scholars, and Fellows House. Your materials will be reviewed by the FSU Rhodes Faculty Committee. Interviews will be scheduled for September for applicants who are considered strong candidates.

INTERESTED IN APPLYING?

Rhodes applicants must be endorsed by their university.

The Office of National Fellowships (ONF) works with all of Florida State University's Marshall applicants. Assistance is offered in the form of individual student meetings to discuss candidacy and project ideas, essay construction and revision assistance, and technical support.
